Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Countryman will entertain the Neighborhood Whist club next Friday evening.

MURRAY.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson entertained last Thursday evening at her home on North State street, in honor of her young daughter, Nora, who completed her studies at the University of Utah. Those present at the affair were all close friends of Mrs. Thompson. Quite a number of the young school friends of the young lady were also present. The house was quite prettily decorated with spring blossoms of all descriptions. Five hundred was the game played during the evening. Supper was served.

William Barrett, accompanied by his chum, will leave the coming week for the southern portion of Idaho, where the two young men will spend the next three weeks at least. They are contemplating spending about two weeks in the Yellowstone park before they return.

With the warm weather here, the country homes about Murray are taking on an air of activity. The Walker home is already populated, while Oakwood, the country home of Mrs. Edwin Holmes, is looking better than ever. The places are bright with spring blossoms. Cottonwood canyon is commencing to draw its share of pleasure-seekers. This was demonstrated forcibly Saturday, when a number of the young of this place went up to the canyon to spend two days. The boys are contemplating going as far as Mill D. where they will pitch camp.

About twenty little school friends of Miss Louise Berger pleasantly surprised that little lady at her home in this city Thursday. The crowd of merry-makers presented themselves at the door, each laden with a goodly supply of dainties. The hostess was completely surprised, and demonstrated during the afternoon that she could act the part of entertainer to perfection.

About ten young ladies of this place spent Tuesday at Wandamere park. Those who enjoyed the function were schoolmates at the Arlington while school was in vogue. Lunch was taken along, and during the afternoon the young ladies in the party enjoyed themselves immensely.

George Parker left this week for Europe. It is the intention of Mr. Parker to stop off at Denver while en route to New York to visit with relatives. While in Europe he will visit extensively, and will spend the next seven months sight-seeing before returning to Murray.

H. S. Cahoon of Oasis was a Murray visitor for a day or more of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lyon are now pleasantly settled in their new home on Tenth avenue.

After an absence of almost one year, Charles Anderson wandered into Murray this week. The gentleman formerly lived here, but is now a resident of Colorado.

The M. C. F. entertained at the assembly hall Thursday evening in honor of a few of their members. This was also the last entertainment that will be given this year by this organization. The hall, while not a large one, was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and presented quite a pretty appearance in its decorations of red and white. The orchestra, composed of eight pieces, was stationed in the south end of the hall.

Frank C. Jordan, a former student of the U. of U., entertained for about six of his school chums at the home of his mother in the vicinity of this place Tuesday. The large Jordan home, with its pleasant surroundings, appealed to all who attended the elaborate function. The grounds around the house were spotted with electric lights, while the home the decorations were beautiful. The evening was most delightfully spent by the young men, the party not breaking up until quite late.

Miss Alice C. Overman will leave with a party of friends Sunday for a trip up Ogden canyon. The young ladies will take lunch at the Hermitage, and during the afternoon will devote their time to other amusements.

Miss Jane Oleander is here from Park City. While here she will be the guest of her friend, Miss Laura Towns.

A large outing party is planned for this week, when a number of young people will take a day's jaunt up into the canyons surrounding Murray. The party will go by stage, and are figuring on going up the Cottonwood canyon, as the scenery is most alluring at this time of the year.

Mrs. John Sanders has returned to her home in Park City, after a pleasant visit of three days here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Davis.

Earl Brownlee arrived in Murray this week from Mexico, where his parents now live. He will spend a month or longer here with some of his friends before returning.
